A MEMPHIS GIRL Who Commits Snielde and Murder at Meridian. .

The Vicksburg Herald of yesterday morning contains the following: A young weman committed suicide and murder Wednesday evening about dark by jumping from the Mobile and Ohio railroad bridge into the Sowaabee creek, a half m le from Meridian, after the sound of the state of the sound of the strapping her infant to her breast. She was seen by a colored man, and was soon recovered from her watery grave by the Meridian officials. On the bridge were known her hat, shawi and portmonie. Among other things in the portmone was $18.35 in silver. ne 15 greenback bill and the following note:

"My name is Annie Lee Wilson, and I live on Polar a reet, Memphis. I am twenty years of age, and my father,
in ther and me sister, eventeen years old, are living there. I was a happy old, are living there. I was a happy and contented girl up to two years ago. I need not tell why I am unhappy new, and why I want to die. When my body and that of my darling child are found, if they ever are, the story of a dishonored gul's life will be told. Halting between resolution and irresolution for the past six weeks, too cowardly to live and afraid to die, apurned by friends and outlawed by unutterable grief, and that brief period has seemed an eternity of woe. I know it is wicked, ordinarily, to take know it is wicked, ordinarily, to take one's own life, but if in this instance I sin, God knows I have been more sinned against than sinning. I racognize the fact, that in a little while, I shall have to stand at the bar of judgment to answer for my life and death, and I have no thoughts of censure to write upon this page against the author of all my misfortunes. I love him, and, as I hope to be for-given, I forgive him. God have mercy on his soul, and deal as gently with an erring and broken-hearted girl, and her innocent little baby, as you can."

The remains were taken to the undertaker's office where a number of Meridian ladies prepared them for burial and not find her parents. The News says she had been in Meridian trades and see many states of the St. two days and was registered at the St. Emo Hotel, the morprietor of which raid she had been bright and cheerful all day and had told him when she left that she was going out to visit a friend in the city.
